COMICCRAFT

Project Documentation

Project Overview

ComicCraft is an AI-powered web application for generating personalized comic stories and illustrations.

Application Workflow

User input → AI outline → narration/dialogue → image generation → panel layout → PDF export.

Output

The system provides an on-screen comic preview and a downloadable PDF containing the comic content.

Current Scope

The documented version focuses on single comic generation without user account management.